Christmas decorations

As every year before Christmas, we decorate our house. Today I will show you how you can make a fragrant Christmas ball in a very simple way.

For this purpose, we need various ornaments: Christmas balls, chains and lights.

Fragrant orange

□ We will need:

- oranges, lemons, lime
- cloves , string or ribbon
- tools for cutting patterns into skins
- toothpick , scissors

Execution:

1. First, prick the peel of the fruit with a toothpick in which we will place the cloves - we can make a pattern first.

2. Put our cloves into ready-made punctures. You can place them quite close to each other, because it will give you a very aromatic and pleasant smell.

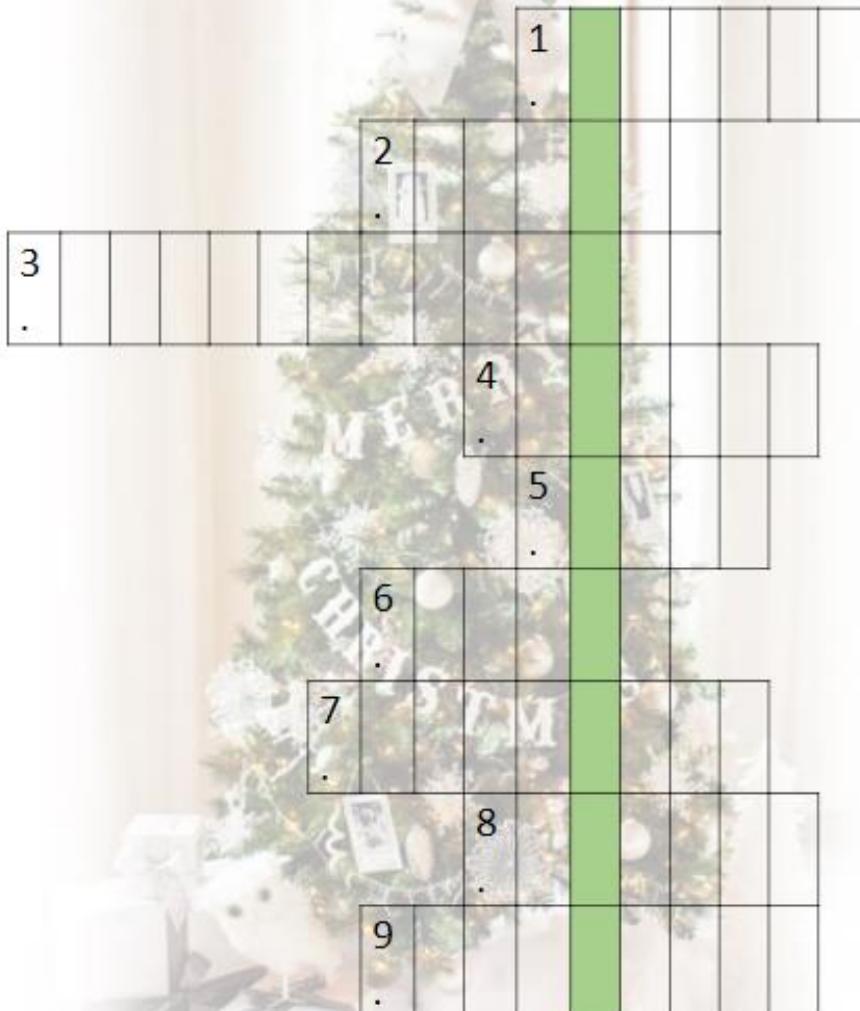

3. When our carnation bauble is ready, make a pendant. We stick a pin with a piece of string in the middle at the top of the orange and make a pendant.

This is how we create a fragrant orange!

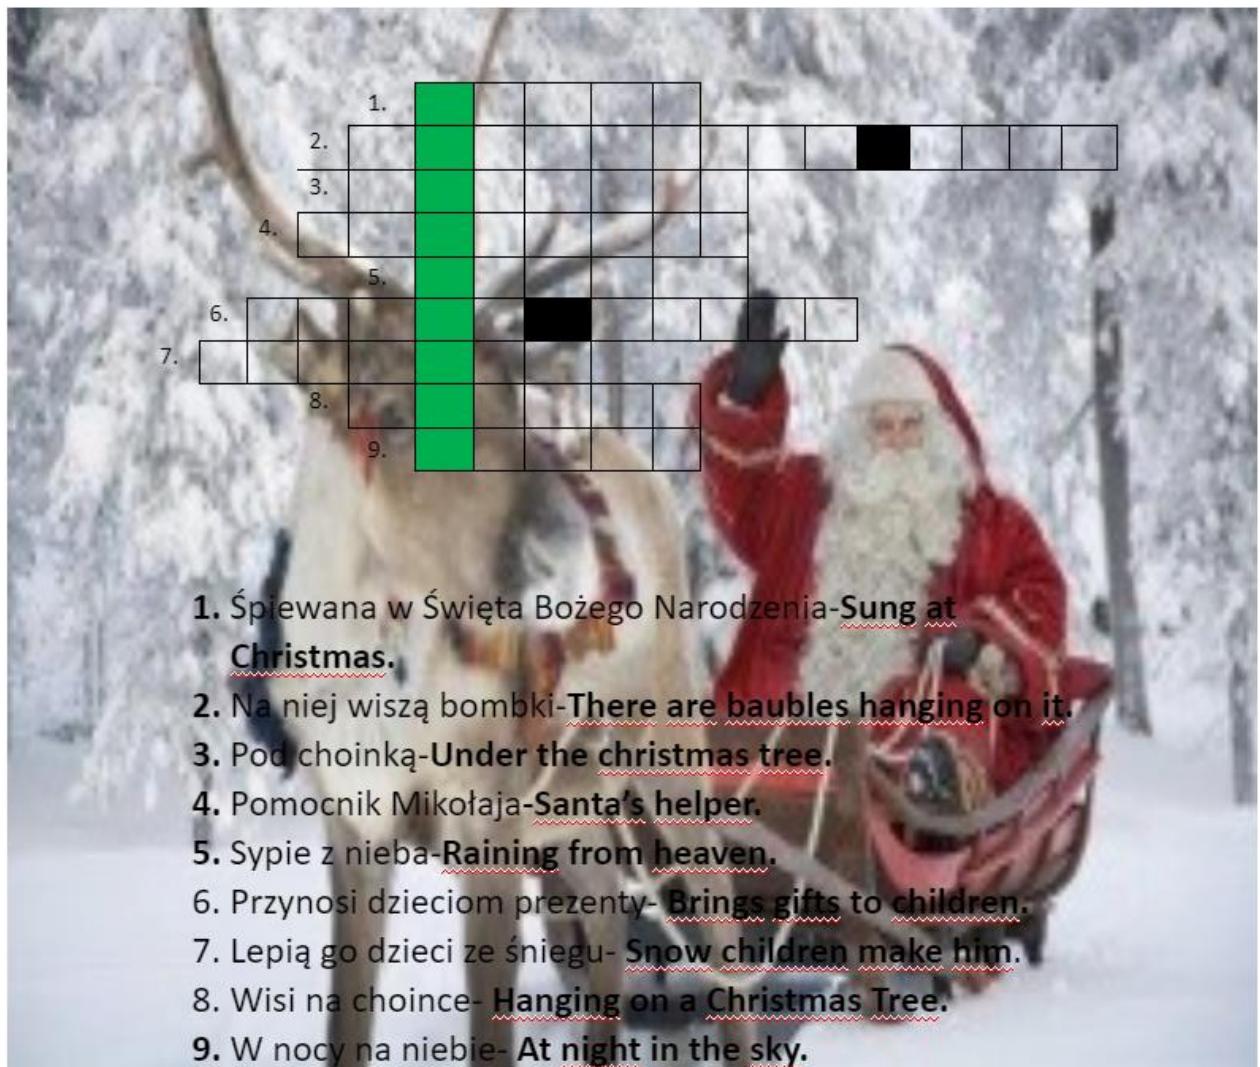

Merry Christmas!

Christmas Pudding

Christmas pudding is a type of pudding traditionally served as part of the Christmas dinner in the UK, Ireland. Christmas pudding is a dark, sticky, and dense sponge, more like a fruitcake, made of mixed dried fruit, candied fruit peel, apple, and citrus zests. Brandy and spices provide a deep, complex flavor and signature dark color.

INGREDIENTS

- 50g blanched almonds
- 2 bramley cooking apples
- 250g butter
- 200g box candied peel
- 1 whole nutmeg
- 1kg raisins
- 140g plain flour
- 3 large eggs
- 100g light muscovado sugar, crumbled if it looks lumpy
- 2 tbsp brandy or cognac, plus extra to light the pudding
- 250g packet butter, taken straight from the fridge

METHOD

STEP 1

First chop the almonds. Peel, core and chop the cooking apples. Next chop the candied peel. Grate three quarters of the nutmeg.

STEP 2

Mix the almond, candied peel, raisins, flour, breadcrumbs, nutmeg, light muscovado sugar, eggs and apples.

STEP 3

Holding the butter in its wrapper, grate a quarter of it into the bowl, then stir everything together.

STEP 4

Brush two bowls with butter and then cover them with baking paper. Next Pack in the pudding mixture.

STEP 5

Now stand each bowl on a large sheet of foil and bring the edges up over the top, then put another sheet of foil over the top and bring it down underneath to make a double package.

STEP 6

Boil steam the puddings for 8 hrs, topping up with water as necessary. Remove from the pans and leave to cool overnight. When cold, discard the messy wrappings

STEP 7

To make the brandy butter, cream the butter with the orange zest and icing sugar. Put in a small bowl, fork the top attractively and put in the fridge to set.

STEP 8

On Christmas Day, boil or oven steam for 1 hr. Unwrap and turn out.

Bon appétit

SANTA CLAUS

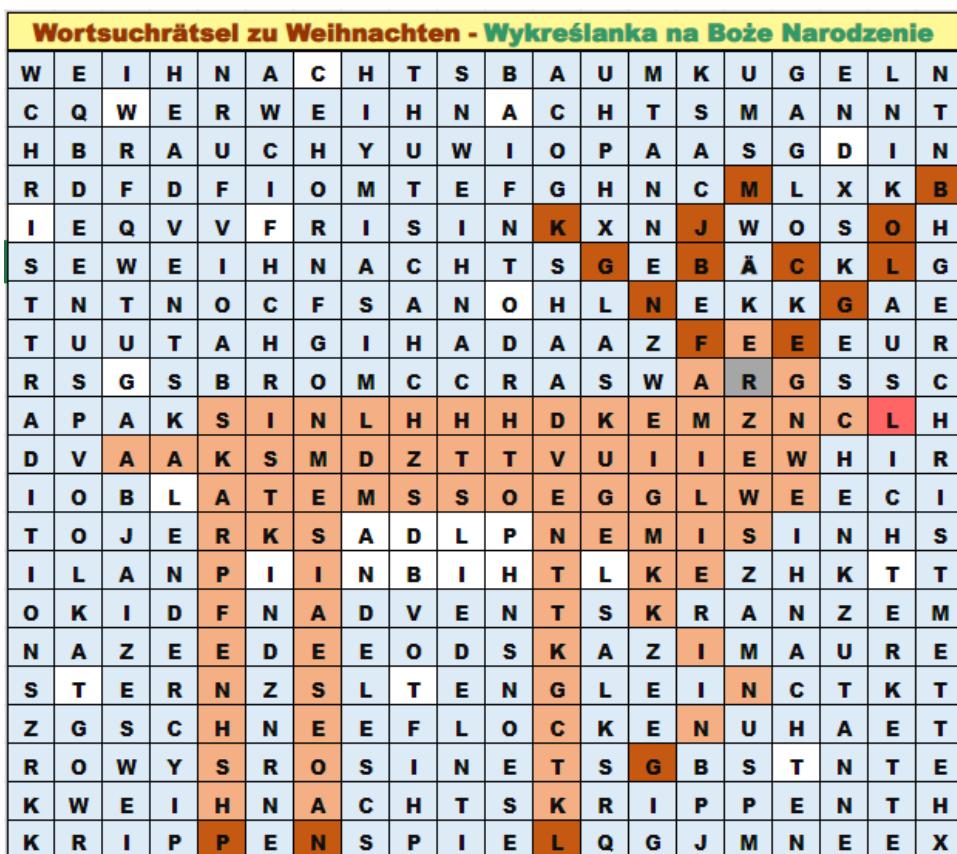

by Sebastian Bethke, kl. 4b

Santa Claus is always smiling. He has a long white beard. He is dressed in a red jumpsuit and a red cap with a white tassel. He also has a black leather belt to hold his large belly. His shoes are warm and black.

Santa Claus lives at the North Pole. He gives gifts at night when all children are asleep. He puts the presents in a large red bag. His reindeer, which pull the sleigh, help him distribute the presents. Santa gets into houses through chimneys. He leaves gifts under the Christmas tree. All children love Santa Claus.

Cinnamon smelling Christmas

When I think about Christmas I dream about the Christmastree, gingerbread and apples with cinnamon... A day before Christmas Eve, we do them with my mum. So, I show you how to make it.

You need:

- five large gray rennet apples,
- six spoons of sugar,
- one spoon of lemon juice,
- half a glass of water,
- a teaspoon of lemon peel,
- two spoons of raisins,
- one glass of heavy cream,
- one and a half spoons of powdered sugar,
- a pinch of vanilla sugar.

We caramelized three spoons of sugar in a pot, adding a little bit of water. We peel apples, remove the seeds and divide apples into eights. We sprinkle them with cinnamon and lemon juice. We put them in a pot, stir, until they are equally covered with caramel. We add raisins and some water. We heat the apples until they are shiny. Finished! Now it is enough to take the fruit out and cool them in the fridge. Before they are on the table, decorate the apples with cream and powdered dark chocolate. Enjoy your meal.

Der Weihnachtsmarkt

Die Tradition der Weihnachtsmärkte in Deutschland reicht bis in das XV. Jahrhundert.

Jedes Jahr nach dem Totensonntag werden die Märkte eröffnet und enden am 23. Dezember - ein Tag vor dem Heiligabend.

Die Marktplätze sind wunderschön mit Tannen und Lichtern geschmückt.

Für jeden ist hier etwas dabei.

Angefangen von bunten Karussellen für kleine Kinder bis zu kulinarischen Genüssen und Glühweinständen für die Erwachsenen.

Der Duft von Waffeln und gebrannten Mandeln, Nelken und Orangen steigt in die Luft.

Man kann viele traditionelle Gerichte kosten: Kartoffelpuffer, gegrillte Würstchen, Stollen, gebratene Gänse, Lebkuchen und andere Spezialitäten.

Viele Stände bieten handgemachte Werke wie Schmuck, Kerzen und Holzspielzeuge.

In dieser vorweihnachtlichen Zeit ist ein Weihnachtsmarktbesuch ein Muss für viele Menschen.

In gemütlicher Atmosphäre kann man sich gut auf das bevorstehende Weihnachtsfest einstimmen.

MERRY CHRISTMAS

Ines Padiasek 7d

Here are ten things to make your Christmas more British:

Boxing Day

Boxing Day is after Christmas day and is a bank holiday in the UK. It is now a shopping day for British people but in the past, in that day, servants and tradesman received presents from their employers.

Stockings

Kids believe that Santa leaves presents in stockings which are hang by the fire on Christmas Eve. British children often hang stockings at the end of their bed. They hope they will be filled by Christmas morning. That would be a nice surprise to wake up to. It can be difficult for Santa Claus to fill them without waking the children .

Letters to Santa

*British children also write letters to Santa Claus.
But they do something more. They burn the letters in the fireplace so the ashes fly up the chimney and Santa can read the smoke.*

Crackers

The cracker looks like a big sweet with treasures inside. It is a paper tube, covered in foil, twisted at both ends. Each person holds the cracker and pull at the same time. POP! The cracker makes a bit of a bang and the hidden treasures spill out. It is usually a joke which is read at the dinner table, a small trinket and a paper crown.

Wassail

Wassail means "good health" or to "be healthy". It is a traditional Christmas drink made of apple cider, cranberry juice, some spices and rum, it may also be made with wine. It was originally topped with a piece of bread to soak up the liquid.

Crown

At Christmas everyone can be a king. The paper crowns are made of paper and unfold into a crown. Children and adults put on the crown. It is a very colourful sight. The paper crown was added to the crackers in the 1900s and it is still a tradition to do that.

Christmas Meal

Christmas Meal is usually eaten at lunchtime or early afternoon on Christmas Day. It's usually roast turkey, roast vegetables and vegetables like carrots and peas or brussels sprouts. It's often served with cranberry sauce and bread sauce. Christmas Pudding is served for dessert, mince pies and chocolate are eaten too.

Tea

Christmas tea is also a tradition. It usually starts around 6pm. Mince pies or sausage rolls are very often served at the tea party. PG Tips tea is highly recommended. This tea originated in the UK in the 1930s.

Royal Christmas Message

The Queen gives a speech on Christmas Day at 3pm in England. It is usually a chronicle of that year's most important events, focusing on the British Empire originally and later the Commonwealth of Nations, with the queen's own personal feelings on Christmas. The tradition of sending out a Christmas Message to the public began in 1932 with George V.

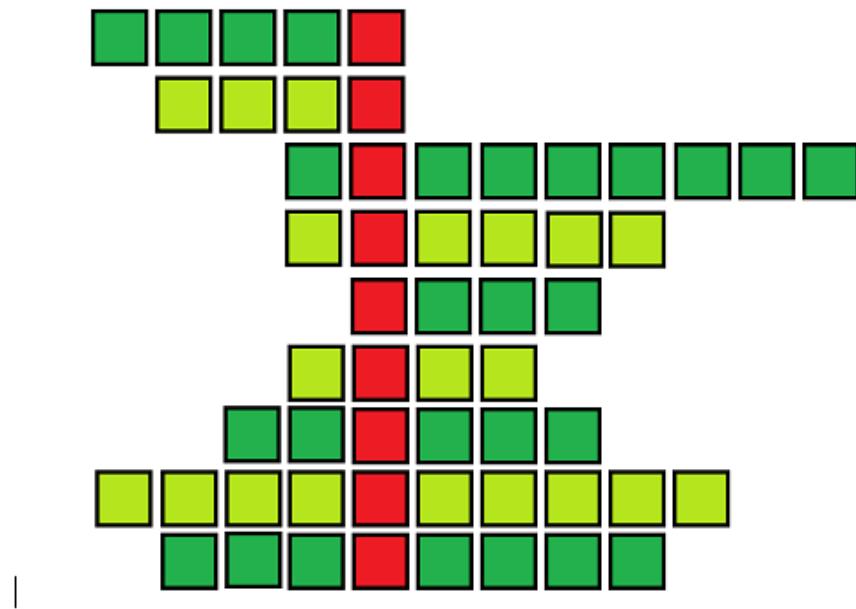

Christmas Cards

The tradition began in the early 19th century, and developed with the growth of the national postal service. The British still send and receive fifty or even a hundred cards each Christmas although the growth of social media and email caused a decline in the number of mailed cards. They often use these cards as a part of the Christmas decorations.

Beetroot soup

by Natan Porada k1.6d

Components:

A pinch of salt, pepper and marjoram

1 900 ml of beetroot leaven

2 liters of water

Small beetroot 3 pcs

Bay leaf 4 pcs

Peppercorn 7 pcs

Allspice 5 pcs

Dried mushroom 15 pcs.

Onion 2 pcs

Celery 1 pcs

Parsley root 3 pcs

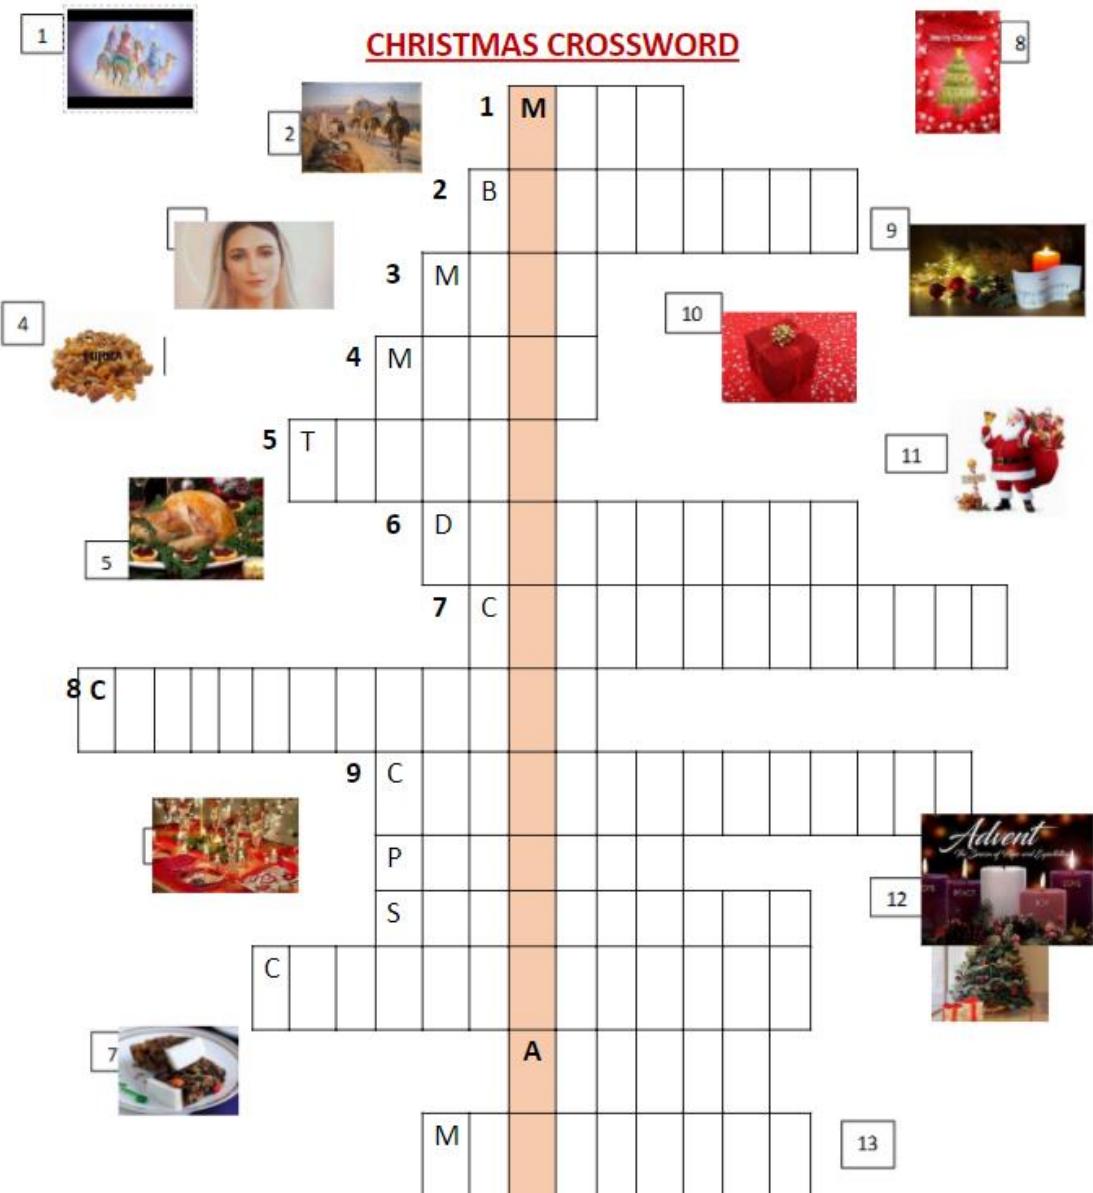

Carrot 5 pcs

Preparation:

Greens: wash carrots, parsley, celery, peel and cut into quarters. Roast 2 onions on the burner. Add chopped greens to a pot with cold water, pepper in grains, bay leaf, 2 onions, a few balls of allspice, dried mushrooms and 2 beetroots cut into halves. Turn on medium gas and cook, covered, for about 1.5 hours. Peel 1 small beetroot and grate it on a medium-mesh grater. As soon as the vegetable stock is boiled and the vegetables are soft, add the beetroot leaven. Pour about 900 ml of leaven. Add the previously grated beetroots. Thanks to them, our borscht will retain its intense and saturated red color. We add sugar and salt to taste. We also add marjoram. It is best to cool the borscht completely and put it in a cool place for at least 12 hours - it will take on even more intense color and distinctive flavor. Before serving, strain the borscht and serve it with dumplings.

CHRISTMAS TRADITIONS IN POLAND

There are various and quite interesting Christmas traditions in Poland. To begin with, the most well-known custom is cooking twelve traditional Christmas Eve dishes. It is also important to place under the tablecloth some fresh hay. According to the tradition the hay symbolizes the birth of Jesus in the poverty. Moreover, people in Poland have an extra set of plates and an empty chair for an uninvited visitor. What is worth mentioning this extra setting by the table is a symbol for the memory of the dead or absent next of kin. In addition, there is always a burning candle on a Christmas table, what is an invitation of the holy light of the new-born Savior to be present at every household. In addition, there is always a burning candle on a Christmas table, what is an invitation of the holy light of the new-born Savior to be present at every household.

There is a beautiful tradition of singing Christmas carols that starts from Christmas Eve day. The Christmas Eve is traditionally finished by a holy mass called "pasterka", which takes place always at midnight. Pasterka memorizes the arrival of three shepherds, who came as the first gave a tribute to the new born Jesus Christ. Overall, the rich and numerous Christmas traditions in Poland can make a great impression and unforgettable experience on every person.

Christmas tree

We have many Christmas traditions in Poland.

I very like the tradition of decorating the Christmas tree, because without a Christmas tree we don't have magic of Christmas in the house.

My dad buys a big and beautiful a Christmas tree.

We put a Christmas tree in the living room and I with my family decorate it. We put gifts for everyone under the Christmas tree.

We buy ornaments and sometimes we make ornaments by hand.

I bake gingerbread cookies with my mother and decorate myself next decorate a Christmas tree.

Christmas habits in the UK Liwia Staszkiewicz 5a

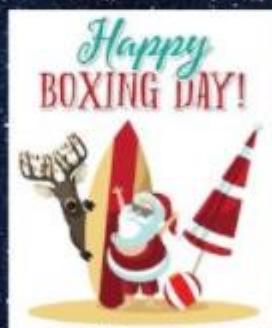

Everybody loves Christmas and children especially. British children start celebrating at the beginning of advent. They get advent calendars with little presents for 24 days. The British love Christmas decorations and you can see colourful lights, holly ivy, ribbons and wreaths on the doors and in the windows. In December people get busy with buying Christmas presents and making gingerbread cookies. British children do not get presents on 6th December but they have to wait till 24th December, Christmas Eve. Although the British do not celebrate 24th December but children leave their stockings by fireplace and a plate of cookies and a glass of milk for Santa who brings presents at night.

On Christmas Day children hurry to see what Santa has left for them. Unwrapping presents is wonderful fun! The highlight of the day is a special Christmas dinner: roast turkey with vegetables and cranberry sauce and there are always a lots of delicious cakes. The most important is Christmas pudding filled with dried fruit and nuts. Mince pies and Yule Log are important too.

Christmas crackers are also very exciting: they contain little trinkets and fireworks which explode when you open the cracker. The British queen always makes a TV speech on this day. Later people visit their families and sing carols.

26th December has got a funny name in the UK, Boxing Day. The name comes from boxes with gifts for the poor left in the churches. It's another day of family celebrations, carolling and relaxation. The next day is the beginning of business as usual and shoppers can enjoy the sales.
